

PRACTICE FOCUS

John C. Monica, Jr. is a principal attorney in Offit Kurman’s Civil Litigation practice group. John’s practice focuses on complex civil litigation in state and federal courts across the Mid-Atlantic and nationally. He has extensive MDL and class-action experience, as well as significant federal appellate experience. John also has a nationally recognized experience in nanotechnology and antitrust matters. He has authored numerous peer-reviewed publications and has presented nationally and internationally as an invited speaker.

RECOGNITIONS

- Martindale-Hubbell AV Rated
- Virginia Legal Elite, Health Law, 2020

EDUCATION

- George Washington University, J.D., with honors
- Northwestern University, B.A.

ADMISSIONS

- Virginia
- Maryland

JOHN MONICA, JR.

Principal, Tysons Corner

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation
- Creditors’ Rights, Reorganization and Bankruptcy
- Distressed Real Estate