

PRACTICE FOCUS

Sidney Washington is a member of Offit Kurman’s Landlord Representation practice group representing landlords and property managers in various residential and commercial real estate matters. Prior to joining the Landlord Representation Group at Offit Kurman, Sidney was in house Claim Litigation Counsel for one of the country’s largest insurance companies. While there, she provided insurance litigation defense services to policyholders in the Northern Virginia area. As a criminal defense attorney, Sidney represented clients in a number of cases ranging from traffic offenses to serious felony charges. As a result, she has extensive experience with bench and jury trials in both civil and criminal defense cases.
