

PRACTICE FOCUS

Paige Vankooten is an attorney in Offit Kurman’s Business Law & Transactions practice group. Paige represents and advises both small and large businesses. Paige assists her clients by advising on the initial structure of their entity if in the formation stages, drafting or reviewing contracts, leases and any other business-related needs that may arise throughout the life of the company. Additionally, Paige advises her clients in the sale and purchase of their respective business or merger by negotiating letters of intent, terms of the sale and drafting purchase agreements and ancillary documents. Paige strategically negotiates transactions and deal closings which range up to $80 million. Paige also assists clients with their estate planning needs.

Having worked for the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts as a Judicial Fellow, Paige is very knowledgeable about the workings of the court system. In that capacity, she served as a law clerk for the 370 trial court judges across North Carolina.

Additionally, Paige clerked at the North Carolina Business Court during law school for both Judge Gale in Greensboro and Judge Bledsoe in Charlotte. Paige also served as Law Clerk for the Honorable Justice Barbara Jackson at the North Carolina Supreme Court.
