

PRACTICE FOCUS

Sarah R. Goodman is a member of Offit Kurman’s Labor & Employment practice group. Ms. Goodman’s practice focuses on federal and state labor and employment investigations, counseling, and litigation. She routinely advises public and private employers on workplace matters and employment disputes involving Title VII, ADEA, ADA, state/city statutes pertaining to employment regulations, and policy development. Ms. Goodman’s work includes litigating wage and hour, discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, and breach of contract claims in federal and state court, and before administrative agencies, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. She also has experience defending corporations and executives in all stages of civil and criminal investigations and litigation, including False Claims Act-related litigation and investigations.

Ms. Goodman is actively involved in numerous organizations and associations, including the American Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Bar Association, and the Philadelphia Bar Association. She is also the former President of the Board of Directors for Lombard Swim Club Associates and has been a member of the Young Lawyer Editorial Board of The Legal Intelligencer since 2015.

Ms. Goodman received her J.D. from the Fordham University School of Law.
