PRACTICE FOCUS

"You must do the thing you think you cannot do." - Eleanor Roosevelt.

I strive to provide my clients with attention to their individual needs, supportive but candid advice, creative legal solutions, and to work with them through difficult challenges to help them build a foundation to move forward to live authentically and joyfully.

Jodi Argentino is a Principal with Offit Kurman's NJ/NY Family Law Practice. Prior to joining Offit Kurman, Jo was a founding Partner of Argentino Fiore Law & Advocacy, LLC. Jo's practice is focused on complex areas of Family Law and related matters.

Jo received her JD from Syracuse University College of Law in 2002, and began her legal practice as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Deanne M. Wilson, J.S.C. Thereafter, she spent most of her practice focusing exclusively in the area of Family Law. She has, however, spent significant time immersed in employment discrimination, personal injury and civil rights advocacy. Jo often relies upon these experiences in her current work.

Jo obtained her Master of Science in Child and Adolescent Developmental Psychology, to inform and enhance her practice with children and families. She has studied a variety of developmental disorders, personality disorders and mental health conditions, the neurobiological and developmental effects on young children when they suffer the trauma of separation from a known caregiver and focused her Masters thesis on the importance of gender affirmation in contested custody matters.

Jo is an active and passionate volunteer within the legal and LGBTQ+ communities and has written extensively on the subject of Family Law and LGBTQ issues. She has been a speaker for organizations in NY and NJ, as well as for various national venues.
