

PRACTICE FOCUS

D. Scott Hester Jr. is an attorney in Offit Kurman’s Real Estate practice group. Scott's practice involves various real estate matters related to commercial and residential properties, including title searches and opinions, real estate closings, rezoning, annexations and land development. From personal residences to multi-million-dollar commercial properties, Scott has successfully assisted his clients in securing financing, drafting and negotiating contracts and leases, and obtaining proper zoning and licensing from government entities. Scott’s goal is to help you navigate the legal aspects of real estate to achieve the best results possible.

Scott’s other areas of practice include Construction Law, Homeowner’s Association Law, Landlord-Tenant disputes and Bankruptcy. He has experience litigating and advising his clients on matters regarding breach of contract, real property disputes, boundary disputes, evictions, summary ejectments and partitions.
