PRACTICE FOCUS

Raimund Freihube is an attorney in the firm’s Family Law practice group. He has been in practice for 35, focusing on family law and trust and probate litigation for the last 25 years. He has a background in business and unlawful detainer litigation, products liability, construction defect and municipal defense. His current practice includes child custody, child support, defense in District Attorney support enforcement matters, partner support, asset division, tracing, domestic and elder restraining order matters, guardianships, conservatorships, and premarital planning. He routinely attends trials and settlement conferences concerning all aspects of family law and probate/trust disputes. He understands and readily accepts the challenges of cross-over problems between family law, probate/trust disputes and unlawful detainers. Raimund has successfully tried cases to judge and jury alike and settled numerous matters during his career. He prevailed and recently obtained a defense verdict before a jury in Parnello v Papiano.

Before becoming a lawyer, Raimund worked in hospitals in medical research and administration. He co-authored Neural Tube Defects, Pediatric Clinics of North America, v. 25(3), 1978. He later authored Products Liability: The Law, the Players and Prevention, DIE- LINE, v. 19, Nos. 1, 3 and 4, 1995; Gifts, Loans and Divorcing Children, Clark & Trevithick, Legal Issues, Summer 2004.

Raimund is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the State Bar of California and the American Public Health Association. He was commended by the Legal Services Program for Pasadena and San Gabriel-Pomona Valley for his contribution of pro bono legal services in 1996, 1997 and 1998.
