

PRACTICE FOCUS

Jill Kane is an attorney in the firm’s Landlord Representation group. She focuses her practice on management breach notices for all non-monetary breaches of lease, lease termination notices, and barring notices.

Jill is an experienced trial attorney and has handled possessory actions for non-payment of rent, non-monetary breaches of lease such as unauthorized occupants, drug use, housekeeping, criminal activity, tenant holding over such as remaining past lease end date, forcible entry and detainer, Rent Escrow actions, preparing legally sufficient management breach notices, general legal advice regarding daily operational challenges.

EDUCATION

- Catholic University of America, J.D.
- Syracuse University, B.S.

ADMISSIONS

- Maryland

JILL KANE

Principal, Bethesda

PRACTICE AREAS

- Landlord Representation