

PRACTICE FOCUS

Kevin Kane is an attorney in the firm's Landlord Representation group. He focuses his practice on assisting local, regional, and national property owners with their operation legal needs. Kevin has prosecuted over 500,000 cases involving possession of real property on behalf of his clients.

Kevin is an experienced attorney and handles tenant delinquency mitigation possessory actions for non-payment of rent, breach of lease, tenant holding over, forcible entry and detainer, rent escrows, tenant assertions, security deposit disputes and fair housing act compliance.

EDUCATION

- American University Washington College of Law, J.D.
- University of Wisconsin-Madison, B.A.

ADMISSIONS

- Maryland
- Washington D.C.
- Virginia
- United States District Court of Maryland
- United States Bankruptcy Court of Maryland
- United States District Court of D.C.
- United States District Court for Northern Virginia
- United States Court of Appeals for the 4th Circuit

KEVIN KANE

Principal, Bethesda

PRACTICE AREAS

- Landlord Representation