

PRACTICE FOCUS

Lauren Mullin is a member of Offit Kurman's Commercial Litigation practice group. Lauren has experience handling all aspects of complex civil litigation from the outset of a claim to successful resolution. Lauren assists her clients through fact investigations, depositions, motions practice and settlement negotiations. She has handled significant multi-million dollar appeals on behalf of healthcare clients.

Prior to entering private practice, Lauren was a Judicial Intern and later a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Stuart R. Berger of the Maryland Court of Special Appeals. While in law school, Lauren served as Staff Editor for the University of Baltimore Law Review and was a Research Assistant for Professor Charles Tiefer.
