

PRACTICE FOCUS

Acclaimed Los Angeles divorce attorney Roslyn Soudry brings decades of experience to her California family law practice. Roslyn centers her practice around representing high-profile individuals, including spouses of celebrities, professional athletes, renowned personalities, and other high-net-worth individuals. Clients turn to Roslyn for her combination of legal acumen, outside-the-box thinking, and understanding of the unique challenges facing couples with public personas.

A sought-after attorney, Roslyn is known for handling highly complex and high net worth cases. She is highly experienced in all aspects of family law, including paternity, child custody, dissolution of marriage/domestic partnership, prenuptial agreements, post-marital agreements, including transmutation agreements, and post-judgment related issues. She is equally known for her ability to litigate as well as resolving highly contentious family law matters. She is a trusted advisor to her clients and a formidable advocate when needed.

Roslyn's commitment to advancing the legal profession is evident in her key roles within various bar associations and legal organizations. Notably, she founded the Southern California Family Law Inn of Court and served as its president for over five years. For years, Roslyn has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association and a member of the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section of the Beverly Hills Bar Association. Additionally, she was the chairperson of the annual Los Angeles County Bar Family Law Installation Dinner for three years. She is co-chair of the Legislative Committee and was appointed as a member of the special sub-committee Task Force regarding Child Custody Evaluations. Roslyn is a member of the State and Local Bar Association Liaison Sub-Committee and the MCLE Sub-Committee. She was a presenter and panel chair of the Family Law Advocacy Training Program of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.

Roslyn's vast and varied experience has garnered attention from media outlets such as the Today Show, Daily Journal, USA Today, and People Magazine, where she was interviewed and quoted on various family law matters.
