PRACTICE FOCUS

Josh Quinter is a commercial litigation attorney with a focus on construction law. Josh actively works with his clients in the areas of business planning, contract negotiation and project consulting, risk management and dispute resolution and litigation. His client service and professionalism has earned him the distinction of being named a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer, a Lawyer on the Fast Track and a Rising Star.

Josh has extensive experience representing stakeholders at every level of the construction industry. He has represented owners, contractors and subcontractors on both public and private projects on a multitude of issues, including payment issues, defect and delay claims and indemnification and insurance issues. Josh has successfully obtained verdicts and rulings for his construction clients in cases involving various contract claims, liens, surety bonds and personal injury claims resulting from construction site accidents. His extensive experience includes litigating complex commercial matters, insurance coverage and bad faith issues, unemployment compensation benefits and labor and employment law issues. Josh’s experience includes mediation, arbitration and litigation. However, he spends extensive time helping clients manage risks and solve problems before they enter litigation.

Josh is active in several trade and business organizations and is regularly published in national, regional and local publications. He presently sits on the Board of the Metal Building Contractors & Erectors Association Mid-Atlantic Chapter. Josh also chairs the Legislative Committee for Associated Builders & Contractors Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter. A former collegiate and professional soccer player, he formerly served as chairman of the William & Mary Men’s Soccer 12th Man Club. Additionally, Josh is active in various political organizations and previously ran for Congress.

“I enjoy helping my clients solve problems. As a businessman myself, I appreciate that removing obstacles in an efficient and cost-effective manner improves company culture and, ultimately, the bottom line by allowing people to keep their focus on what they do well. A problem solved, whether the solution is legal or not, is always a win.”
